Democrats Ask $5.5 Million Relief Funds

Attempt to Bypass Committee Hearing in Legislature Fails

SPRINGFIELD (CP)—Democrats today introduced a bill to provide a $5.5-million-dollar emergency appropriation for relief, but failed in an attempt to bypass committee scrutiny and advance it immediately to the Illinois House floor.

House Minority Leader James J. Ryan (D-Chicago) moved to place the emergency measure on the House calendar without assignment to committee. He was opposed vigorously by majority Republican leaders and the motion failed.

It needed a majority of 77 votes and got only 75 favorable votes to 64 against.

Lewis Asks For Hearing

The 1955 Legislature earlier passed a 12-million-dollar deficiency appropriation to the Illinois Public Aid Commission. In spite of this, the IPAC announced last week it was cutting poor relief allotments 10 per cent in March. The cut affects relief in Chicago and some downstate communities.

Ryan told the House the 10 per cent cut could not be applied to payments for rent, utilities and other fixed charges. The only place where reductions could be made was in food and medicine payments, he said.

"This creates a hardship in many families," Ryan said.

Majority Leader John W. Lewis Jr., Marseilles, argued the bill should get a full airing by a House committee.

"There are many questions I want to ask to satisfy my own mind how relief has been handled in the city of Chicago," Lewis said.

Lewis said it seemed "very funny to me" that employment in Illinois is higher than in other large states, yet Illinois has "the highest relief load in the country."

Some Counties Hard Hit

Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) said figures on unemployment "don't give the full picture" and that Saline, Franklin, and some other southern counties are hard hit, as well as Chicago.

Powell said mine closings have aggravated conditions in southern Illinois.

"There are many people in southern Illinois who have drawn their 26 weeks of unemployment compensation and are still unemployed and walking the streets," Powell said.

Before the vote was taken, Lewis moved to table Ryan's motion. He lost 73-72, but the final outcome was in his favor.

Gov. William G. Stratton Monday said the rise in relief payments was caused by migration of jobless from other states to Illinois.

Stratton told a news conference Monday the Illinois Public Aid Commission should take a "careful look" at the situation to see what steps can be taken to halt the climb in relief lists.

The governor said that while the number of persons getting relief in Illinois is increasing, so is the number of persons employed.

He said many of those going on relief are newcomers to Illinois who are "unemployable" for various reasons, like illiteracy. Stratton suggested two possible steps to meet the problem:

1. Seeking jobs for those on relief who are employable.

2. Trying to get home states of unemployed newcomers to improve educational programs and cut illiteracy.

Lucky Strike? Let's Look It Over

FIRST STRIPPING OPERATION URANIUM OXIDE in Hardin county has begun on the Willie Rendleman lease on Hicks Dome by J. Willis Crider, Lyle Winn, W. H. Beshears and George Edward Winn, all of Marion, Ky. These four hold leases on 400 acres in the Hicks Dome area and this stripping operation is about 400 yards southeast of the top of the Dome. The top photo shows the bulldozer digging down into the mixture of red clay and sandstone and pushing it up where Mr. Crider and Lyle Winn are waiting. Bottom photo shows George Edward Winn, Mr. Beshears, Lyle Winn and Mr. Crider moving over to examine the latest samples pushed up by the bulldozer. (Daily Register Staff Photos)

Begin Stripping Operations for Uranium Oxide

First stripping operation which seeks uranium oxide has begun on Hicks Dome in Hardin county and another such operation was scheduled to get under way today.

Already using a bulldozer to dig into the earth for samples of radioactive material are J. Willis Crider, Lyle Winn and George Edward Winn and W. H. Beshears, all of Marion, Ky. These men have 400 acres under lease and are stripping on the Willie Rendleman place about 400 yards from the top of the dome.

Being stripped is a combination of dark red clay and sandstone and the many say that the clay seems to be carrying the radioactive material. They remain optimistic that they will find something good, declaring that there have been unofficial reports that some pretty good samples have been tested.

Mr. Crider said that a diamond core drill will be run on the lease in the future. Reports are that such an operation is now being made on the Hamp lease, held by William Chenault and W. G. Reynolds.

Crider said that "Slim" Rea, an Abilene, Texas oil man, was scheduled to start a stripping operation today on the Joyner lease.

Interested spectators at the Crider operation yesterday were Willie Rendleman, upon whose land the search is being made, and Nathaniel Jenkins, who owns 20 acres nearby which is under lease to the same men.

Mr. Jenkins is a former resident of Harrisburg and is a former chairman of the Saline County Board of Supervisors.

"When you're a millionaire, come up and see us some time," a reporter jokingly said to Mr. Rendleman.

"I don't want to be a millionaire," Mr. Rendleman replied.

Comedian Danny Thomas, Walt Disney Win Double 'Emmy' Awards in Television

HOLLYWOOD — Comedian Danny Thomas and producer Walt Disney, a newcomer to television, won double "Emmy" awards Monday night at the seventh annual presentation of the Television Academy trophies.

A surprised Thomas, whooping "Who, me?" was called to the stage of the Moulin Rouge Restaurant in Hollywood to be handed a gold statuette as the best series actor on the home screens for 1954.

Minutes later the comedian made a return trip to collect another Emmy, for the best comedy series award, for his folksy program about show business, family life, "Make Room for Daddy."

Disney, already holder of 22 movie Oscars, added an Emmy for "Disneyland" as the best variety show. "Operation Undersea," one of the Disneyland shows, also won an Emmy for the best individual program of the year.

More than a thousand TV academy members and industry executives in black ties and evening gowns filled the Moulin Rouge for the awards event, telecast for the first time.

Loretta Young shared the spotlight with Thomas when she was honored as best series actress for her dramatic program.

"Now that I have won this I can confess how much I wanted it," she beamed.

George Gobel, a new star to the TV screens, shyly clutched his Emmy and said nothing when he was honored as the most outstanding new personality. The best "single performance" awards went to Robert Cummings for "12 Angry Men" on "Studio One" and Judith Anderson for "MacBeth" on the "Hallmark" program.

Other awards included: Best cultural program: "Omni-bus." Best sports program: "Gillette Cavalcade of Sports." Best children's program: "Lassie."

Best news commentator: John Daly. Best audience guest participation program: "This is Your Life." Best male singer: Perry Como. Best female singer: Dinah Shore. Best dramatic series: "United States Steel Hour."

As a commission member, Mr. Erton will meet with other members of the IPAC each month in Chicago. The commission supervises all state relief expenditures and other phases of the relief programs.

Harry Erton, Harrisburg real estate broker, has been named a minority member of the Illinois Public Aid Commission.

Erton, former Saline County Democratic chairman, was appointed to the IPAC Monday by Gov. William G. Stratton, following the recommendation of Rep. Paul Powell, Vienna.

He succeeds Leslie G. Pfefferle, Springfield.

The law provides for a certain number on the commission from each of the major political parties and this appointment was to be from the Democratic party. Mr. Erton becomes the first member of the commission from this far south in the state.

As a commission member, Mr. Erton will meet with other members of the IPAC each month in Chicago. The commission supervises all state relief expenditures and other phases of the relief programs.

Choisser Sees Oil Play Here This Summer

Predicts Several Wells Will Be Drilled In Harrisburg Township

Speaking to Harrisburg Rotarians on the oil boom in Saline county, Ralph Choisser, Eldorado, told members he would not be surprised to see several wells drilled in Harrisburg township before the end of the summer.

Choisser, introduced as speaker by club president John Foster, gave an interesting and revealing review of the development and growth of the new Saline county oil field, most of which centers in Eldorado township.

As manager of John Stelle Associates, Choisser mentioned briefly the forming of the group in 1952 and its interest in the oil potentialities of Saline county. This group was first to develop the northwest Eldorado field and has had considerable success in making strikes.

"There are around 110 producers in the Eldorado field now," Mr. Choisser said, "and I shouldn't be surprised to see a number drilled in Harrisburg township before the end of summer."

"Oil brings money into a community," the speaker continued, "through leases, operators and workmen and abstracts."

It is difficult to foretell at this time just how much of a lift the oil boom will bring Saline county's economy.

Choisser also touched on the possibility of a cracking plant locating in Eldorado to separate by-products from the gas being encountered in the Eldorado field along with the oil. If such a plant were forthcoming, he saw this as an added income source for Saline people.

Some of the best oil wells in the Illinois-Indiana field have been developed recently with the discovery of the northeast Eldorado pool. One of the reasons given for the hope of additional strikes in this area was the fact that oil has been hit in as many as five different pay levels.

John Stelle Associates have drilled 26 producers since their organization. Mr. Choisser told his listeners that it costs around $40,000 to bring in a producing well and that most payout in from 20 to 24 months. One, he revealed, had paid out in eight.

Cecil Sullivan, Harrisburg, another member of Stelle Associates, was also present at the meeting and made brief comments.

Two honor students were special guests. They were Patricia Moore, and Sue Ellen Roper, both of the Junior high school.

He is the son of Mrs. Winifred Morris and the late Nelson Morris. His father was a mining engineer, well-known in coal circles. He and his family reside at 516 North Webster.

His wife, Maryalice, also is a native of Harrisburg.

Harvard Economist Urges Gov't to Halt Speculation If Market Takes Upturn

WASHINGTON — A Harvard economics professor urged the government today to act quickly to check speculation in stocks if the market takes another sharp upturn.

He warned that a crash like that of 1929 "can happen again" and that the people still have a "considerable capacity for self delusion" about the stock market.

The warning came from Prof. John K. Galbraith in a statement to the Senate Banking Committee which is investigating the current stock market boom.

Galbraith conceded there are sharp differences between the economic and market situation now and conditions which led to the 1929 crash and the depression.

Raise Margin Requirements

But he said "there are resemblances which are certainly interesting and possibly disturbing."

Galbraith said that if stock prices begin to move upward again in the current boom, the Federal Reserve Board should raise margin requirements to 100 per cent.

This would place trading in stocks on a strictly cash basis. The Federal Reserve Board recently raised margins from 50 to 60 per cent.

Galbraith also recommended that the government sound clear and repeated warnings "about the danger of runaway speculation" to both the national economy and speculators and strongly urge that the people "buy good bonds" instead of stocks.

Gives Amateurs Warning

"If speculative tendencies persist, more drastic measures invoking the tax power should be contemplated," Galbraith said.

"Those who react with horror to such suggestions should also react to the alternative which, presumably, is an eventual bust."

The professor also urged the financial community to "take the lead in resisting a new outbreak of speculation."

He suggested that the New York Stock Exchange include in its campaign to interest more people in buying stocks "stern warnings on the dangers that await the amateur speculator."

Galbraith's warnings were bolstered by a report Monday night of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

It said that last year in the stock market, "There was evidence of increasing speculative activity and of a rise in stock prices at a rate that could not be maintained indefinitely and, when reversed, could have a depressing effect on the economy."

To Vote on April 2 on Proposal to Rebuild Burned-Out Junior High; $87,500 Bond Issue is Required

Voters of Harrisburg City school District 43 will be asked on April 2 to approve a proposal to rebuild the old Junior high school, destroyed by fire January 1.

The building provided a majority of the class rooms for the Junior high school, the auditorium, the offices of the school principal and the central offices of the school superintendent.

A bond issue of $87,500 will be required to supplement the insurance paid for loss of the old building.

Seven voting districts will be established for the election to be held between the hours of 12 noon and 7 o'clock p. m. They will be at Logan, Bayless, McKinley, new Junior high, Liberty, Dorris Heights and Bankston.

Plans Approved by Board

The boundaries will be the same as the school districts named, except Horace Mann area voters will go to Junior high school and Lincoln area voters will go to Logan school.

Plans sufficiently complete to estimate costs were approved by the school board Monday evening, at which time a formal resolution calling the election was passed.

The plan calls for rebuilding the old building along the same general lines in order to salvage as many of the walls and basement floors as possible.

The west wall will be utilized completely, with minor changes in window openings. The south wall will be extended a few feet in order to enlarge class rooms. The old gymnasium will not be rebuilt, but a portion will be used for a girls' physical education room.

The auditorium will be on the first floor level instead of at a higher level, which was required in the gymnasium. It will run from west to east instead of from north to south, so the entrance will be at the rear.

Fireproof Construction

The new building will be practically fireproof, in that all floors will be concrete and all windows will be metal instead of wood.

The old building was erected in 1921 at a cost of approximately $100,000. It is estimated that on the basis of present-day costs, the building would cost $280,000.

Salvage of old walls, footings and basement floors is estimated at slightly less than the cost of equipping the rebuilt structure with new furniture, fixtures and other classroom needs.

Elect Ronnie Doerge Vice President Southern Illinois Art League

Ronnie Doerge, operator of Ronnie's Studio in this city, last night was elected vice president of the Southern Illinois Art League, at a meeting held at Casey, Ill. Glen Northway of Casey was elected president. It was also voted at the meeting, an all-day affair, to meet in Harrisburg on Oct. 31, the next meeting of the art league.

Ronnie's Studio also received six awards in a judging of portraits, more than any other studio from southern Illinois which had pictures on display. It received a first and third in children's portraits, first in women's portraits, third in men's portraits, third in color and second in commercial pictures.

Red Cross Aid Rushed to Four-State Area

Weather Bureau Warns of Possible Major Indiana Floods

By United Press

Ohio river flood waters, slowed down by a late winter cold wave, were expected today to leave 10,000 to 12,000 persons in need of aid through a four-state area.

The rising river appeared to have done its worst in Ohio and West Virginia. But icy flood waters still threatened down-river Ohio and Kentucky communities and the weather bureau warned of possible major floods in Indiana.

Thousands of persons were already homeless in the four states.

They sought shelter in Red Cross headquarters, public buildings, and private homes. In Indiana, Legionnaires, Boy Scouts, National Guardsmen and church groups helped evacuate families from threatened homes.

River Still Rising

The American Red Cross met the threat by rushing 21 disaster specialists into the four states. Special regional disaster headquarters were set up at flood threatened Ashland, Ky., and Red Cross chapters from Huntington, W. Va., to the Mississippi river were alerted.

The Red Cross said 1,600 families have already suffered damage to homes or property in the four-state area and it expects 10,000 to 12,000 persons to register for rehabilitation assistance before the flood waters subside.

In Ohio, the swollen river was still rising from Gallipolis to Portsmouth at the rate of .05 feet an hour.

A flood crest of 62.5 feet, 11.5 feet above flood stage, was expected at Ashland, Ky., early today and the river was expected to crest later at Portsmouth at 60.5 feet.

In Cincinnati, where the muddy waters lapped at riverside buildings, the river was expected to crest nine feet above flood stage at 61 feet by Thursday.

Tug River Overflows

The Ohio Highway Patrol said today it had evacuated 706 families and 116 businesses. Monday, flood waters forced 1,355 persons to move from their homes in Hamilton county.

All schools were closed in the state's Gallia county, while at Williamson, W. Va., the flooding Tug river spilled four and a half feet of water into the basement of the Williamson Daily News.

Downstream, more than 150 families were chased from their homes in southern Indiana. Firmen used a motor launch to reach a marooned pregnant woman at Evansport, Ind., and Madison, Ind., firemen simply dipped their hoses in the flood water to put out an apartment house blaze.

The sapping of the flood's strength could be largely credited to the surprise March cold wave which still gripped the nation's northeast today.

The cold snap froze runoff waters which might have swelled the Ohio's crest and dropped temperatures 15 to 30 degrees in Southeast Atlantic states.

Mugge Withdraws From Mayor Race Due to Illness

Hudson Mugge announced today that, although he is a nominee for mayor of Harrisburg, subject to the General Election of April 19, and his name will appear on the ballot, he is not to be considered a candidate.

Mr. Mugge has been ill for the past month, a majority of which time he spent in the Lightner hospital. His physician has advised him that it would be detrimental to his health to make a campaign for the office, and that it would be more hazardous for him to attempt to fulfill the duties of the office should he be elected.

In a statement in The Register today, he thanks those who voted for him or worked in his behalf, and expresses a continued interest in the growth and betterment of Harrisburg.

Negotiations Still Deadlocked in Sangamo Dispute

MARION, Ill. (CP)—Negotiations still were deadlocked today in the strike of 900 workers at the Sangamo Electric Co. plant.

No mediation sessions were held Monday and none was scheduled for today.

The strike of Lodge 1986 of the International Association of Machinists began Feb. 14. The union asked for a 10-cent hourly wage increase which officials of the Sangamo capacitor division said cannot be granted.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND
By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Churchill Unwittingly Aids Republicans; On-Again, Off-Again State Department Doesn't Know What We're Defending; Ike Wants To Bench Some Republican Senators Who Won't Play Ball.

WASHINGTON. — Prime Minister Churchill has secretly requested the State Department not to publish its diplomatic correspondence regarding the Yalta conference until 10 years have passed.

This will be a bad blow to Republican politicians who have been waiting for the secret Yalta record to be published so they could charge alleged Rooseveltian giveaways to the Kremlin.

However, when Churchill's request was relayed to John Foster Dulles, his reaction was: Since Eden and Churchill risked their political necks for us on the Formosa crisis, we ought to adhere to Winston's wishes.

So the Yalta papers, though already in galley-proof form, will be suppressed.

Churchill based his request on the fear publication would harm American-British relations.

GOP DISAPPOINTMENT

This probably ends an attempt by GOP senators to pry the Yalta records loose. Senators Knowland of California and Bridges of New Hampshire had continued an appropriation of $12,000 a year for four years to publish documents pertaining to both Yalta and U. S.-Chinese relations. Terrible pressure was applied to the State Department last October to get publication before the November elections, and Bill Reed, Republican Senate secretary, even went down to the State Department to prod historian Robinson McIlvaine — to no avail.

GOP senators don't know it yet, but actually the Yalta records are disappointing from a political point of view. They contain almost nothing about Alger Hiss, long suspected of selling the USA short at Yalta.

They do contain one typical Rooseveltian wise-crack to the effect that "maybe we should sell Long Island to Stalin."

But on the whole, Republican politicians are probably better off having the documents suppressed for 10 years. This way they can talk about the Yalta "give-aways" without any being able to dig up conflicting facts. So perhaps Winston Churchill did the GOP a good turn.

Note — In 1943 the State Department proposed publishing the secret record of the Versailles peace conference, whereupon Churchill protested. At that time it looked as if the Allies were losing the war and he was afraid the Germans would have a published record to show how tough the Allies were on them at Versailles. The State Department acceded to Churchill's wishes in 1943, but published the full conference record in 1954 when the tide of war had shifted and the Allies were confident of winning.

DULLES VS. CHIANG

Here is the inside reason why Secretary of State Dulles suddenly went to Formosa for an unscheduled conference with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Dulles flew to Taipei after Chiang virtually demanded that he show up to discuss something he said was extremely critical to the free world. When he got there, Dulles found that Chiang was hoping mad because he thought Foreign Minister Anthony Eden had persuaded Dulles during the Bangkok conference to abandon any idea of defending Quemoy and Matsui.

Dulles assured Chiang the U. S. 7th Fleet will help defend both islands against Red China—if it looks as if an invasion is the prelude to an attack on Formosa. Chiang answered that he hoped this was true because, if not, he would have to order his own forces to attack the mainland, even if it meant eventual suicide for him and all his army.

Dulles wound up the conference by urging Chiang to keep calm and trust the United States not to desert him.

Note—There have been so many conflicting statements on Quemoy and Matsui that some people even inside the State Department don't know whether they're going to be defended.

IKE'S POSSIBLE PURGES

DDE is being cagey about it, but he's quietly arranging for some senatorial purges too. Instead of going out to campaign openly against GOP opposition senators, however, Eisenhower is carefully building up candidates to run against them.

For instance, he's brought ex-Gov. Howard Pyle of Arizona into the White House as one of his special assistants in order to give him a springboard to run against GOP Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, one of the most raucous McCarthy-ites on Capitol Hill.

Goldwater, of course, has got wind of this, which explains his recent pessimistic statement about the re-election of Republican senators. Senator Goldwater, ironically, is chairman of the GOP committee charged with re-electing senators, so he served indirect notice on the White House that some other Republicans might have a tough time.

Another GOP solon the White House would like to see benched is John Marshall Butler of Maryland, elected by Joe McCarthy and Texas-Chicago Tribune money in 1950.

In order to bench him, Ike is building up Gov. Theodore Roosevelt McKeldin of Maryland, which was one reason why Simon Sobeloff, Ike's solicitor general, recently staged a big dinner for McKeldin. The dinner, incidentally, was not paid for by Sobeloff. He was just doing his best to cooperate with top Republican strategy.

Note 1 — Goldwater got into the Senate on something of a fluke, defeating Sen. Ernest McFarland, Democrat, who had done a great job for Arizona but, as Senate majority leader, had to spend much time in Washington. Now McFarland has staged a comeback, last fall won the governorship from GOP Governor Pyle.

Note 2 — It's a paradox of politics that, though FDR invaded Maryland to purge Sen. Millard Tydings, Democrat, McCarthy 12 years later managed to do the purging. Now DDE, with different tactics, wants to purge the man McCarthy elected. Tydings, who was defeated, hasn't decided yet whether to run again. He'd like to for vindication purposes, but on the other hand he's really enjoying private life.

OCTUPLE TROUBLE—That's what plagues teacher Harriet Hanson as the result of having four sets of twins in her first-grade class at Allen School, in Hutchinson, Kan. The look-alikes are (front) Janet and Janis Young; Shirley and Sheryl Waite; (back) Martha and Marsha Tucker and Judy and Trudy Shrauner. Not only do they look alike, but each pair's names sound alike and all eight have identical winter coats.

13 Counties to Name Supervisor Of Assessments

SPRINGFIELD — Thirteen counties of a possible 94 have decided to use a 1953 law aimed at equalizing tax assessments on a county-wide basis.

The 1953 Illinois Legislature passed a law permitting counties under 150,000 population—94 according to 1950 census figures—to appoint a full-time supervisor of assessments or county assessor.

The law permits the county board or commission to name the supervisor by resolution unless 5 per cent of the registered voters call for a referendum on the matter within 30 days.

The Supreme Court in 1951 ruled a 1949 law which created the office of county assessment supervisor in all downstate counties was unconstitutional, delegating invalid powers to the State Revenue Department.

Kankakee Names Bergan

The plan to let counties create the office themselves was presented in the 1951 and 1953 Legislatures and approved on the second try.

The latest county to appoint a supervisor of assessments was Kankakee, which named Daniel E. Bergan, former Pontiac Prison warden and city police chief.

Nine other counties also have named assessment supervisors — Ford, McDonough, McLean, Crawford, Williamson, Jackson, Kendall, Macoupin and Bureau.

Knox county, according to the State Revenue Department, is in the process of making an appointment, and Tazewell and McHenry counties have adopted the plan but not moved to appoint the supervisor.

Revenue Department records show voters took the supervisor of assessments appointment to a referendum in two counties—Bureau county voted for it, Christian county voted it down.

To remove stains from porcelain, apply a paste made of cream of tartar and hydrogen peroxide, let stand about 15 minutes, then rinse well.

The first step in washing slipcovers is to shake and brush them well along the seams to remove loose dust.

Acting on a 20-Year-Old Decision !

Let's suppose it was a couple of decades ago when a young lad, with his book strap over his shoulder and his lunch basket under his arm, started slowly down a dusty road that led to a country schoolhouse.

But his walk was short that day. For a big, handsome Cadillac—with its smiling driver traveling in the lad's direction—stopped and gave him a "lift."

And as he stood there on the schoolhouse lawn and watched the big car roll off into the distance, he made a decision. He decided that, some day, he would own a Cadillac.

And here you see him, his dream come true—taking the keys to a new 1955 Cadillac!

As a Cadillac dealer, we've been privileged many times to help make such a dream come true. And it never ceases to be a thrill.

But we do feel, in all sincerity, that many motorists

—not realizing the Cadillac car is practical as well as wonderful—wait too long to make the move.

The lowest-priced Cadillac, for example, actually costs less than twelve different models of other makes. Its economy of operation is far beyond anything you could logically anticipate from a car of Cadillac's size and luxury. And at the time of resale, a Cadillac traditionally returns a greater share of its owner's investment than any other car in the land.

If, like the gentleman in the picture above, you have been looking forward to a Cadillac of your own—you should give careful consideration to these remarkable Cadillac facts.

It is entirely possible that the time for your Cadillac has come—and, as we said, it is always a pleasure to help make such a dream come true.

Better come in and see us today.

Ike Receives First Easter Seals From Crippled Boy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six-year-old Billy Jennings climbed slowly up the steps of the White House on his crutches today and presented President Eisenhower the first sheet of 1955 Easter seals.

His action marked the opening of this year's annual, month-long Easter seal campaign of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings of Trumbull, Conn., has been crippled since birth. An artist's concept of his braced legs appears on the 1955 Easter seal poster.

He had a congenital spinal defect which left his legs useless, but treatment has restored his lower limbs sufficiently to permit him to ride his bicycle, swim and enjoy many other activities of children his own age.

Originally, Bill was to have met Mrs. Eisenhower, but she was ill with a touch of the flu.

Maj. Nugent is Acquitted; To Resume Career

FT. SILL, Okla. (AP)—Maj. Ambrose Nugent said today his acquittal on nine collaboration charges was a "vindication of American military justice" and he plans to resume his Army career as an artillery officer.

The 45-year-old regular Army major, who had been accused of aiding the Communists while a prisoner in Korea, was swamped with congratulatory telegrams and telephone calls today.

Local townspeople who had followed the seven-week court-martial joined in praising the court's decision.

"It was a very popular decision here," said John Clabes, of the Lawton Constitution Press.

"I love the Army. I want to stay with it," Nugent said today. "I want to take a leave and get some dental work done, then I plan to resume my Army career as an artilleryman."

Nugent expressed hope that his German wife, who still is in Europe, will be able to come to this country soon.

"I appreciate the faith and confidence individuals all over the country have given," he said. "I have tried to be a soldier and a good officer."

Nugent was defended by two Army attorneys in the long trial. "The only thing I can say now is that military justice is vindicated," the graying grandfather from Merrill, Wis., said after the decision Monday. "I absolutely had a fair trial."

A board of two colonels and seven lieutenant colonels deliberated 2 hours and 7 minutes before deciding the tall, gaunt soldier did not give undue aid to his captors while a prisoner of war for some 38 months in Korea.

Conviction could have meant life imprisonment and dishonorable discharge. Court-martial rules required a two-thirds vote of the

The body now lies in state at the home of the son.

Border Patrol Seeks Applicants For Career Service

The U. S. Border Patrol has an urgent need for a large number of physically fit young men desiring a career in Federal law enforcement work. In order to secure a sufficient number of qualified candidates for early appointment, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, in cooperation with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, has undertaken a recruiting program in the Missouri-Illinois area. Representatives of the U. S. Border Patrol will be available to furnish information to anyone interested in making application for the position of Patrol Inspector (Trainee) at Room 602 in the New Federal Building, Twelfth and Market Streets, St. Louis, Mo., from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, on March 16. ## Dulles Outlines Firm Policy Toward China

Sec'y Meets with Congress Group;
Public Report Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles outlined to congressional foreign policy leaders today a firm "no appeasement" policy toward Red China.

In advance of Dulles' appearance before a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, one member of Congress said the secretary told him he feels Red China is not bluffing in

DULLES KNOWS NOTHING ABOUT EDEN'S STATEMENT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today he doesn't "know anything about" British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden's statement that a Formosan cease-fire could clear the way for Red China's entry into the United Nations.

As for Eden's statement that the British objective is to put an end to hostilities in the Far East, Dulles said:

"That, of course, is something the United States also seeks. We had hoped the United Nations would be able to achieve a cease-fire. So far, Red China has rejected these efforts."

His stated intention to take Nationalist-held Formosa. Whether the Reds would do so by force or subversion, Dulles did not indicate or know, the congressional source said.

Dulles also was understood to have outlined U. S. plans to retaliate on three fronts if Communist China commits aggression in the troubled Asian area. The reprisals, possibly with atomic weapons, would be aimed against the Reds from Formosa, Korea and Southeast Asia.

Question Dulles Regarding Split

Foreign policy experts of the Senate and House also asked Dulles—just back from the Far East—to tell them specifically how far the United States is committed to defend Quemoy and the Matsu islands off the Red China coast. They also wanted to know whether the administration's policy in the Far East has caused a U. S.-British split.

Dulles outlined administration policy on these and other touchy problems involving the tense Far East in appearances first before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and then the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

He also prepared to make a public radio-television report to the nation tonight.

Eden Reported "Disturbed"
Dulles returned Sunday from two weeks in Asia where he helped organize the Southeast Asia defense of the eight-nation Manila Pact and set in motion the U. S.-Nationalist China Defense Treaty.

Dispatches from London said British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who also attended the eight-nation defense meeting held in Bangkok, returned greatly disturbed over U. S.-British disagreement on ways to meet Red aggression in Asia and to obtain a cease-fire on Formosa.

But Chairman Walter F. George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he talked with Dulles Monday and that the secretary "indicated that there was no basic misunderstanding, although the British have slightly different interests in that area."

He said Dulles "seemed to think that there was some exaggeration about differences in viewpoint" between the U. S. and Britain.

Two Girls Use
Register Classifieds
To Find Lost Rings

Pre-teen agers are probably the proudest people there are when it comes to jewelry. Their first ring their birth stone. Their first bracelet. A necklace or lapel pin are symbols of growing up.

At basketball games they are likely to get excited enough to twist a ring off their fingers, a bracelet off the arm, etc. Two and maybe countless more did this past week. But at least two of that number relied on Daily Register classified ads to return them.

Helen Sue Aldridge had her pink sapphire birthstone ring returned to her. It was found at the Harrisburg Dairy lunch room. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien Aldridge.

Another, Ann Clevenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clevenger, is sitting anxiously by the telephone waiting for the finder of her bracelet, which her daddy brought to her from Atlantic City, to return it or call and say where she may recover it.

Bar Ass'n Files Complaint in Chicago Race

CHICAGO (AP)—Democrats suffered a jolt in the bitter Chicago mayoralty race today as a bar association committee ordered proceedings against a top candidate which could end in disbarment.

A formal complaint charging misconduct as a lawyer was filed against Benjamin M. Becker, Democratic candidate for city clerk and chairman of the City Council's Emergency Crime Committee.

Becker had promised to bow out of the red-hot political race if the bar association ruled against him. He had no immediate comment today on whether he would wait for further bar association action.

The alderman had been accused by a Chicago newspaper of sharing fees in 18 40th Ward zoning cases with another lawyer, Maurice L. Blonsky.

At the time, he called the charges a "smear," and asked the Chicago Bar Ass'n to investigate them. "If the bar association discloses unethical conduct on my part, I shall resign as alderman and resign as candidate for clerk of the city of Chicago," he said.

The specially appointed bar association committee, in a statement released Monday night, announced it found "sufficient showing of misconduct" to warrant proceedings against Becker.

The recommendation was forwarded to the association's grievance committee and board of managers, which was expected to begin private hearings immediately. Its recommendation will be turned over to the Illinois Supreme Court, which could impose censure, suspension as a lawyer or disbarment.

There was no immediate comment from Richard J. Daley, the Democratic candidate for mayor who is in a hard-fought battle with a fiery young Republican candidate, Robert E. Merriam.

Daley also is county clerk and chairman of the party's powerful Cook County organization. It was expected that his word would weigh the most in a decision on whether Becker stays on the April 5 election ticket.

Eisenhower, Mamie Suffer Cold, Flu

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower missed his weekly meeting with Republican congressional leaders this morning because of "slight symptoms of a cold."

The White House also disclosed that Mr. Eisenhower went to Walter Reed General Hospital Monday afternoon for heat treatment of bursitis in his right shoulder.

Mrs. Eisenhower remained in bed today with what the White House described as "a slight touch of flu."

The President postponed at least three of his appointments this morning but Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the president hoped to be in his office in time to greet the 1955 Easter Seal poster boy, 6-year-old Billy Jennings of Trumbull, Conn.

Offer Measure to Revise Illinois Court System

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The proposed state constitutional amendment to revise the Illinois court system was introduced in the Legislature today and there were immediate signs of opposition.

The amendment, drafted by the joint committee of the Illinois and Chicago bar associations, is backed by Gov. William G. Stratton, who has named it his No. 1 goal for constitutional change.

The measure would streamline the court system into three levels—trial, appellate and supreme courts, lumping all present trial courts into a circuit court, with circuit, associate and magistrate judges.

Only attorneys would be qualified to sit on the bench and every judge seeking another term would have to be approved by the people with-out opposition, running on his record.

The amendment submitted today is drawn to avoid the arguments over selection of judges that defeated the proposal put before the 1953 General Assembly. The new plan would require a 1958 referendum on the provision of naming judges through a nominating commission in turn appointed by the governor.

Social Security Disability Freeze In Effect Under New Provision in Law

"Workers and self-employed men and women under 65 who have been totally disabled for at least six months and who have worked in jobs covered by social security for a substantial time may benefit from an entirely new provision in the Social Security Act," E. Bishop Hill, manager of the Harrisburg social security district office, said today.

This amendment applies equally to those who are now disabled and to those who are now disabled and to the future. Similarly, some retired workers who are now receiving monthly social security checks may be favorably affected if they are still disabled as the result of a disability which began before they reached 65.

Mr. Hill explained that beginning Jan. 1, 1955, applications for a "determination of disability" are being accepted by the Social Security Administration through local social security district offices.

"This does not mean that cash payments based on disability are now possible under the social security program," Mr. Hill cautioned. "It does mean, however, for the first time, that periods of prolonged disability will not count against some wage earners or self-employed persons in figuring the amount of their average monthly wage on which old-age and survivors insurance payments are based."

Mr. Hill explained that under the social security law in effect before the 1954 amendments the average monthly wage had to be figured from a specified starting date until the worker became 65 or died. Those who could not work over a long period of time because they were disabled had their average earnings reduced by these periods of no earnings or of low earnings. In addition, the months of disability also had to be counted in figuring whether or not the individual had worked sufficiently long in jobs covered by the social security law to be eligible for any old-age or survivors insurance benefit.

"Under the new law, average earnings and eligibility requirements will not be affected by the period of disability," Mr. Hill said. "In effect, this means that the amount of the social security benefit at death or at 65 would not be impaired by inability to work during lengthy disability periods."

Qualification for use of the "disability freeze" depends on these factors:

1. The worker must be totally disabled by a medically-determinable illness, injury, or other physical or mental impairment which can be expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration. This condition must have existed for at least six months, and he must still be disabled at the time of filing his application for a determination of disability.
2. The worker must have been employed or self-employed for a substantial period of time in occupations covered by the social security law before onset of his disability. A "substantial period of time" means 5 years of coverage out of the 10 years before the disability, of which time 1 1/2 years of coverage must have been in the 3 years prior to disability.

"Any worker under 65 who believes he qualifies under these conditions should get in touch with his nearest social security office to file an application for a determination of disability," Mr. Hill advised.

"If he is found to qualify under the law, his earnings record will be 'frozen' by the Social Security Administration generally back to the date his disability began if his application is filed before July 1, 1957. By the same token, a retired worker or self-employed person who is getting social security checks now and who is still disabled as the outgrowth of a condition which began at least 6 months before age 65 should discuss his case with the social security office. A recalculation of his benefits may be possible beginning with the payments due for the month of July 1955," Mr. Hill said.

One teaspoon of lemon juice added to each quart of water in which rice is cooked helps to keep the grains white and fluffy.

Logan Sixth, McKinley Fifth Win Championships

Championship games in the Harrisburg grade school basketball tournament were played Monday afternoon with Logan winning the sixth grade title and McKinley taking first place in fifth grade competition.

Logan won over McKinley 28-21 for the sixth grade championship and McKinley's fifth grade team took its title with a 38-20 victory over Logan.

Seven schools — Horace Mann, McKinley, Dorris Heights, Dorrisville, Logan, Liberty and Bayliss — entered the fifth grade meet. In the sixth grade competition were Bayliss, McKinley, Dorrisville, Dorris Heights, Horace Mann and Logan.

McKinley and Logan won their way into the championship round of both fifth and sixth grade competition. In round-robin play, completed just before the start of the tournament, Logan sixth and McKinley fifth went undefeated and then repeated in the tournament.

Logan has now gone through two seasons without defeat. This year's unbeaten sixth graders were also unbeaten as fifth graders last year. Following Monday's games Russell Malan, superintendent of the Harrisburg school system, presented trophies to captains of the champion and runner-up teams in both fifth and sixth grade competition.

Records to Fall If Centralia Keeps Up Race

SPRINGFIELD — Scoring records will fall right and left in the Sweet Sixteen if Centralia keeps up at the present pace—and keeps on winning.

The Orphans poured through exactly 110 points in each of its regional tournament wins last week. That would be enough to give them at least two new records in the Sweet Sixteen.

Centralia's 110 would break the Champaign tourney mark of 89 for a single team. The 330 for three games would smash the record for a full four games at Champaign, 310 points. Both Sweet Sixteen marks were set by Chicago Du Sable last spring.

Centralia undoubtedly would break the two-team single game record of 162 at its present rate. That figure was set by Du Sable and Edwardsville in the 1954 semi-finals at Champaign.

The Big 12 conference has five teams that survived to sectional play. Besides co-champions Pekin and Decatur, they are Streator, Mattoon, and Lincoln. The Big Eight sent Rockford West, Rockford East, Elgin, and Aurora East to the sectionals, while the Northwest conference has Galesburg, Canton, Kewanee and Moline. The South Seven has Centralia, Mount Vernon, West Frankfort and Herrin in the sectionals.

Twenty-one of the 64 teams left in the downstate sectional and the Chicago eliminations never have been to the state finals. So far only 167 of the state's some 700 high schools have been Sweet Sixteen entrants.

The Chicago Public League's semifinals for that city's Sweet Sixteen berth will pit Crane Tech against Carver Tuesday and Tilden Tech against Marshall Wednesday. Marshall has a 6-foot 8-inch center, Arthur Day, who had a 30.2-point per game conference average, best in the Public League.

Braidwood is reckoned as merely a full meal for the Princeton Tigers at the Ottawa sectional. But if Braidwood can recall tradition, it should stand in awe of no foe. Trying to help his players recall Bohac, hero of the 1938 giant killers who took district tourney winner Braidwood to the state championship game before losing to Dundee. This was the farthest progress of a district winner until Hebron won the 1952 title. Braidwood (24-4) has now won 18 in a row.

There'll be many familiar colors in the sectional tilts—teams like Pekin, Decatur, Rockford East, Princetonville, Centralia and Mount Vernon that never seem to miss—but it's been a long drought for once-favored Galesburg. The Silver Streaks haven't been this far in five years, despite competition with mostly smaller schools in regional play.

Play to Begin Tonight in NCAA Tourney

By United Press
Defending champion La Salle and national champion San Francisco are rated the top favorites as 16 teams open play at four widely-scattered sites tonight in the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

La Salle, surprise winner of the crown last year, begins its title defense by meeting West Virginia in part of a triple-header at New York's Madison Square Garden, while San Francisco, hailed the nation's best during the regular season, opens with a game against West Texas State at San Francisco's Cow Palace.

In addition, there will be a double-header at Lexington, Ky., and a single game at Oklahoma City in this preliminary round play. Tonight's winners join eight other teams which drew byes in the first-round games at four other sites on Friday night.

Tonight's Pairings Listed
Here is how tonight's NCAA program looks: (with won-lost records in parentheses).

At New York
Canisius (16-6) vs. Williams (17-1)
Villanova (16-9) vs. Duke (20-7)
La Salle (22-4) vs. W. Vir. (19-10)

At Lexington, Ky.

At San Francisco
San Francisco (23-1) vs. W. Texas St. (14-6)
Idaho St. (18-7) vs. Seattle (20-5)

Only one berth in the 24-team tournament remains unfilled—that reserved for the Ivy League champion.

MARION EXPERIENCES WITH SOX ROOKIES
TAMPA, Fla. — The Chicago White Sox' winter-long search for new slugging power to win a pennant entered a new phase in spring training today as Manager Marty Marion started experimenting with rookies in new positions.

Marion, who thinks the Sox "can take it all" this season if they find some long-distance punch, put rookies Jim Marshall (a first baseman) and Joe Kirrene (a third baseman) in the outfield in Monday's intra-squad game.

Kirrene, who hit .343 at Colorado Springs last season, whacked a double. Marshall hit .285 with 31 homers at Oakland.

Iowa Winds Up Big Ten Season with 74-58 Loss to Michigan; Enters NCAA Play

CHICAGO — A slightly sour note marred the end of the ten-packer Big Ten basketball race today.

Iowa, which won the championship Saturday when Wisconsin upset Minnesota, suffered a relapse against underdog Michigan Monday night and lost, 74-58.

The game wound up the Big Ten season and gave Iowa a record of 11 victories and three defeats. It also marked the first setback in nine games for the Hawkeyes, pre-season favorites to win the Big Ten title and the fifth-ranked team in the nation in the final United Press standings.

Four Bunched at Sixth
For Michigan, which avoided a last-place finish, the victory meant a tie for sixth place with Purdue, Indiana and Wisconsin. Ohio State was alone in the cellar. Illinois and Minnesota, who figured to give Iowa the most trouble all season—and did—tied for second with 10 victories and four losses each.

Michigan State and Northwestern, the pre-season "dark horse," took the fourth and fifth slots, with 8-6 and 7-7 records respectively.

Fifteen Hawks Play
Iowa, which opens its play Friday in the national collegiate tourney at Evanston, Ill., didn't extend itself against the Wolverines. The Hawkeyes used 15 players, while Michigan played its starting five until the final seconds before making two substitutions.

Guards Tom Jorgensen and Don Eaddy scored 26 and 20 points for Michigan. Forward Carl Cain got 14 for Iowa.

Iowa will meet the winner of the Penn State-Memphis State game in the tournament regional Friday. Southeastern conference champion Kentucky will play on the same card against the winner of the Marquette-Miami of Ohio game.

Both first round games will be played on the Kentucky floor to night. Iowa and Kentucky were seeded directly into the Evanston pairings.

Limping Goose
by Frank Gruber

THE STORY: The only clue, apparently, in the murder of Jess Carmichael III is a "goose bank" which was given to Johnny Fletcher and Sam Cragg, by Alice Cummings. Johnny and Sam were collecting a long overdue bill from Alice and she was short of cash. She gave them the bank. Johnny is playing detective again and so he pays a call on Jess Carmichael, Sr., wealthy father of the murder victim.

X

The guard talked again into the phone, then came out and pressed a button that swung open the gates. The limousine rolled up a curved drive and stopped before a pile of dressed stone that was worth roughly half a million, give or take a hundred thousand.

"May be a while," Johnny said to the chauffeur of the hired car. They walked up to the front door. Johnny leaned on the door button. The chimes were still bonging inside when a liveried butler opened the door.

"Mr. Fletcher?"

"That's right, Wilkins. I just stopped in to offer my condolences to Jess."

"It's a very sad thing, sir," said the butler. "Mr. Carmichael is taking it very badly."

"That's only natural."

The butler consulted a leather booklet in his hand. "I'm afraid I don't have your name here, sir."

Johnny looked at him blankly. "Are you supposed to have it?"

"Yes, sir, you see, there are so many people who try to call on Mr. Carmichael that he found it necessary to make up a list of his friends to whom he is in."

"And my name isn't in the book? Well, what do you know about that?"

"If you could tell me the nature of your business, Joseph, at the gate, said that—that you were a customer. Well, Joseph said that your car—"

"If I'd come up in anything smaller I suppose I couldn't even have gotten this far?"

"I didn't mean that, sir. It's only that..." The butler again took refuge in his leather book.

"Are you a friend of Mr. Carmichael's?"

"From the look of things," Johnny said coldly, "I guess I'm not." He paused, then added sarcastically, "But if it isn't asking too much of you, I'd appreciate it if you'd just step in and tell Jess that Johnny Fletcher is here."

"And your business?"

Johnny turned and struck Sam violently on the shoulder. "Now, how do you like that?" He turned back to Wilkins. "Tell Jess that I'm a customer of his. Tell him that. And if he still doesn't want to see me, that's that."

The butler walked off, crossing the large wide hall and entering a door which he closed behind him. He was gone four or five minutes, then returned.

"Mr. Carmichael will see you in the library."

He led the way through the drawing room, another hall, then opened a pine-paneled room and stood aside. Johnny and Sam went into the library, a room some 20 by 30 feet in size, lined with bookshelves containing mostly leather-bound and other unread books.

Jess Carmichael was seated in a large green leather chair. Across the room, a younger man stood examining the tooling on some of the leather volumes. Carmichael looked at Johnny, frowning. "Fletcher?"

"That's right, Mr. Carmichael. May I offer my condolences..."

Carmichael made an impatient gesture of dismissal. "I never saw you before in my life."

"Neither have I seen you, sir."

"Why'd you tell Wilkins you were an old friend?"

"I never told him anything of the kind."

Carmichael scowled. "I never forget a name or a face. Fletcher? No, I'm certain. I've never done business with you."

"Oh, yes, you have," Johnny said. "I've been a customer of yours for a good many years."

"Ridiculous! I'm the only man in my entire organization who knows the name of every customer we've got. What stores do you represent?"

"None, but—"

"Then who are you?"

"A customer. I've bought at your stores for 20 years, more or less. Not only in New York, but in other cities."

A strange expression came over Jess Carmichael's face—an expression much like that of a man who has bitten into an apple and discovered therein a half of a fat worm.

"You're a retail customer?"

The young man turned from the bookshelves and studied Johnny Fletcher thoughtfully.

Johnny said, "That's right. And I've always been a booster of the Carmichael Stores. Your prices have been good, your merchandise has been fine. Up until recently, I think you should know, however, that I'm not satisfied with your corned beef hash. It used to be that there was plenty of good red meat in a can, but I bought one last week on 45th Street—Store No. 1144, in case you're interested—and I had to search for the meat. Potatoes, that's all there was in the can, potatoes and here and there a tenty-venty bit of the old corned beef."

Jess Carmichael bounded out of his chair. He took two quick steps toward Johnny, then stopped. There was a wild look in his eyes. "Who—who sent you here?"

"No one. I came on my own. Uh, this is my friend, Sam Cragg."

"Hurry, Mr. Carmichael," said Sam, extending his hand.

Nationalists, Reds Reinforce In Matsu Area

TAIPEI, Formosa (U.P.)—Official quarters said today the Chinese Nationalists were rushing heavy American artillery and reserve ammunition to Matsu Island where an all-out Communist attack appeared imminent.

Naval sources reported Monday the Nationalists were increasing the size of the garrison on the tiny rocky outpost barely 20 miles off the mainland to some 40,000 men to counter a major Communist buildup along the "invasion coast."

There was no report of fighting in the tense Formosa Strait today.

Military sources reported only routine patrol action to check Communist troop movements and threats. The Reds fired 18 rounds of artillery at Quemoy Monday.

Despite the lull on the 150-mile off-shore island line from Matsu south to Quemoy, both sides gave all indications a major battle for Matsu was in the making. Each told of huge air-sea maneuvers carried out by the other and of massive reinforcements.

Neither the U. S. Navy nor the Nationalists would comment on reports by Radio Peiping that the Nationalists joined with the United States to stage impressive exercises in the Formosa straits. The broadcast said U. S. carriers from the Philippines took part and that Adm. Felix Stump, U. S. naval chief in the Pacific, watched.

The Nationalists reported the Communists carried out their greatest yet combined maneuvers off Hainan Island near Hong Kong. The Nationalists said more than 80 Red ships and a good portion of the Chinese Communist air force took part.
